

STUDENT HERITAGE DAY AT THE MUSEUM OF APPALACHIA

Friday, November 9th, 2018 9:00am - 3:00pm

The Museum of Appalachia in Norris, TN invites you and your students to participate in Student Heritage Day! This event gives young people the opportunity to embrace their Appalachian heritage with a full day of fun and learning

Student Heritage Day Includes

Games & Activities

- Old-Fashioned Games
- Stick Horse Racing
- Sheep Herding
- Storytelling
- School Marm & Spelling
- Bees at the Schoolhouse
- Hay Pen
- Animal Programs

Meet the Animals

- Peacocks, chickens and ducks
- Donkeys, Goats & Sheep
- A petting area with mini-horses

Educational Self-Guided Tours

- Pioneer Village & Farm
- Hall of Fame & Display Barn
- Museum Gardens

Demonstrations

- Blacksmithing
- Sawmilling
- Leather Working
- Sorghum Making
- Beekeeping
- Basket Weaving
- Old-Fashioned cooking

More Demonstrations

- Pottery Making
- Rail Splitting
- Soap Making

Music & Dancing

- Live Folk & Bluegrass music
- Sing-alongs
- Traditional Dancing
- And much more!

Admission Prices & Registration Information

Advance admission prices: (Schedule by October 26th and save!)

*$8.00 per student *$15.00 per Teacher/Chaperone (1 Teacher is complimentary for every 20 students registered)

To register, contact Courtney Beard or Jennifer Johnsey at 865-494-7680 or courtneybeard@museumofappalachia.org or jenniferjohnsey@museumofappalachia.org

prices after October 26th are $10 per student, $20 per teacher*

Museum of Appalachia
2819 Andersonville Highway
Clinton, TN 37716
Phone: (865) 494-7680
Fax: 865-494-8957
www.museumofappalachia.org

